Gift Donation Request

Thursday, October 8, 2009

5:30 p.m. – 8:00 p.m.

On Thursday, October 8, 2009 Rosewood Heights will host its annual fundraiser at The Institute for Human Performance, from 6:00 p.m. – 8:30 p.m. Guests will sip cocktails, sample scrumptious hors d'oeuvres and desserts while attempting to win great prizes donated by generous merchants like you.

Rosewood Heights Health Center is a not-for-profit organization providing nursing home care to 242 residents since 1971. Along with skilled nursing care, we provide services in the areas of Hospice care, care for individuals with HIV, Alzheimer residents and other mental needs, as well as care for younger chronically ill residents. Some residents are with us on a long-term basis and others are here for short-term rehabilitation.

We can't do this event without the support of our local merchants. We hope that you will donate an item that will be used as a prize (gifts valued at $15-$75). Your contribution will be recognized in the event journal as well as signage at the event.
